J. C. Wyser to Speak.

Hon. J. C. Wyser, Democratic Candidate for Congress from the Ninth District, will address the people of this community on August 22nd, in the Court House. Mr. Wyser is a fine speaker, and every body will want to hear him.

G. W. Doak,
County Chairman.

Golden Spring.

Golden Spring, Va., July 11.—The 4th went off quietly at this place.

Wheat crops are good and corn crops are looking fine in this section.

There are several cases of small pox in and around Grundy, but no deaths reported.

Quite a number of young people came up from Grundy Sunday, and enjoyed a basket dinner in the grove near the Healing Spring. They were accompanied by Miss Myrtle Hurt, one of Healing Spring's guests.

Solomon Rowe died near this place last Tuesday with that dreadful disease, typhoid fever. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss.

Mrs. J. B. Looney has returned from a few days visit to home folks near Gardner, Va.

Rev. Mr. Nangle, Evangelist, held services at this place Sunday.

Mr. J. B. Looney, who has tonsillitis, is some better at this writing.

Rev. J. J. Childress and R. M. Hurt were visiting friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Wyser at Bland.

Bland, Va., July 11.—J. C. Wyser, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Ninth district, made a great speech at Bland today and aroused great enthusiasm among the Democrats and made a strong impression among the plain people. He challenged Slem to a joint discussion and offered to allow Slem to fix the terms and take the close. Bland will go Democratic.

Judge S. W. Williams also made a fine speech, and through Mr. Wyser, challenged L. P. Summers to a joint discussion but Mr. Summers declined.

Voters Remember!

That should the election fall to carry on Wednesday the sidewalks will be built all the same. The Town Council, upon a petition from the property owners, have gone ahead, contracting for about $3000. in walks, and must now go ahead. Should the bond issue fail, it will be necessary to increase the levy to complete the work, and instead of paying 60 cents, as now, we will have to pay, perhaps $1.00. So, it is foolishness to fail to vote for the bond issue.

Notice.

All taxes due the town of Tazewell and unpaid by July 15th will be collected by levy, with costs added. By order of

THE COUNCIL.

Falls Mills.

Returned From World's Fair—Claim Agent Seen—Other Locals.

Falls Mills, Va., July 11.—Mrs. Salie Thomas, of Tenn., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Gillespie. They, with Mrs. Thomas' grandson, went to Tazewell Saturday to visit friends and relatives, and will go from there on Monday to Burke's Garden, to spend a week or ten days.

Mr. Will Shannon, of Bluestone, was in this neighborhood buying calves.

Mrs. J. R. Brown, near this place went to Springville to visit home folks Saturday.

Grace Methodist Church, of Bluefield, had a picnic in the grove at this place last Thursday. It took two coaches to bring the crowd, and all seemed to enjoy the day very much.

Little Miss Annie Dudley, of Graham, was visiting her grandfather, H. G. Dudley, last week.

Mrs. Mattie White and Miss Jessie Caldwell, of Bluefield, were visiting at the home of Mr. Dudley.

Mr. Charlie Fink was visiting his brother, J. C. Fink.

Mr. Tob Belcher and brother, Jim, have been fixing the mud holes in the road from the village up the Mud Fork road today.

W. E. Dudley, of this place goes to Roanoke tomorrow to see the claim agent in regard to the injury he received while unloading bridge iron for the N. & W. Railroad some time since.

W. D. Kistner has returned from the World's Fair, and reports a good time.

Rev. Bogle preached at this place last Sunday at 11 a. m.

Miss Maggie Dudley and Miss Sarah Allbert took dinner with Mrs. W. E. Dudley Sunday, and in the afternoon called on Mrs. Hugh Green and Mrs. T. S. Gillespie.

There is a flourishing Sunday School at this place.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Texas Visitors To Tazewell.

Mr. Chas. B. Gillespie, Managing Editor of the Houston Chronicle, one of the leading daily papers of Texas, came by Tazewell from St. Louis, where he attended the World's Fair, and also reported the Convention for his paper. Mr. Gillespie is a brother of Mr. R. S. Gillespie, and this is his second visit to Tazewell. His career in Houston has been a very successful one, and his position now on the staff of a great paper, speaks in praise of his energy and ability, and gives promise of still greater things in the future. His wife accompanied him on the visit, and attracted great attention here. She is said to be one of the most beautiful women in the Lone Star State, and the statement is not difficult to believe. No doubt much of Mr. Gillespie's success is due to the inspiring influence of his wife, of whom he is justly proud.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie and their little girl left, after a much too short visit, on yesterday for their home.

Pisgah.

Pisgah, Va., July 13.—All are expecting a nice time at the picnic, which will take place Saturday, July 16, in honor of the Sunday School.

Mrs. W. J. Sutherland and children were visiting home folks at Tazewell Saturday.

Messrs. Bob Yost and Tom Catron were in our midst Monday evening.

Misses Bertha Lee Stinson and Lydia White, of Belfast and Richlands, Matilda Williams and Mrs. Will Catron of North Tazewell, were the guests of Mrs. W. J. Sutherland, of this place, last week.

Messrs. Ben Morgan and Byrd Dalton, two of Richland's handsome young men, passed through our midst last week.

Miss Laura Cecil visited homefolks recently.

Mrs. W. G. Sutherland entertained quite a number of her friends at her home, July 11, in honor of her cousins, Misses White and Stinson. Those present were: Misses Laura, Minnie, Nannie, Cecil, Clara, Maggie Peery, Lydia White, Bertha Stinson, Matilda Williams, Mrs. Catron, Messrs. Reece Young, Bob Yost, Tom Catron, Sam Cecil, and Henry Peery. Mrs. Sutherland knows how to entertain her many friends.

Food Fads.

There are other foods than "baby foods" that are healthful foods for children. Take our Stearns Bread as an example. It is pure, properly made and wholesome, containing all the nutritious qualities of the finest selected wheat. Price 5c per loaf.

First Class Goods.

We are all the time advocating better goods because cheap stuff is ever a miserable failure. FIRST, They are proofless to the maker and dealer. SECOND, They disappoint the user. THIRD, They belittle the noble horse upon which they are used.

A cheap saddle or set of harness advertises your neighborhood to strangers as a place without energy and devoid of pride.

We want to help you out of this way by putting on one of our nice, single or double rigs, so you can feel comfortable as to safety, and know that you have as good harness as Mr. Neighbor, if he did buy them from

W. L. Draper & Co.

The World's Fair.

The following Tazewell people will leave next Tuesday for St. Louis:

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Peery, North Tazewell; Mrs. W. B. Spratt, Richlands; Miss Laura Gildersleeve, Gratton; Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Ward, Misses Jule Brittain, Etta and May Hankins, and Mr. Robert Brittain, who is returning to his home in Texas.

Editorial.

The nomination of Hon. H. C. Davis as candidate for Vice-President, was a surprise, as his name had not been mentioned prior to the Convention. He is the father-in-law of Senator Elkins, the most prominent Republican of West Virginia, and first cousin to Senator Gorman of Maryland. His name on the ticket will strengthen it, and West Virginia may go Democratic.

If an honest fair election can be had in West Virginia this fall the Democratic ticket will be elected. But the tactics of the recent Republican Convention at Wheeling does not encourage the hope that an honest election is probable.

Judge Parker for President and Mr. H. G. Davis, of W. Va., for Vice-President, make a strong ticket, and in the opinion of wise men will be elected. Most certainly true it is, the Republican ticket will have a tight race.

Mr. Bryan didn't sulk. He came to St. Louis and fought it out. After he discovered that he could not get what he wanted he gave up, and went with the majority. If the ticket falls this time, it will not be Mr. Bryan's fault.
